Intro

WONO, a rapidly growing worldwide community of independent contractors, issues a staking token. All investors will get nice bonuses on the platform like free promotion options, reduced commission and many more.

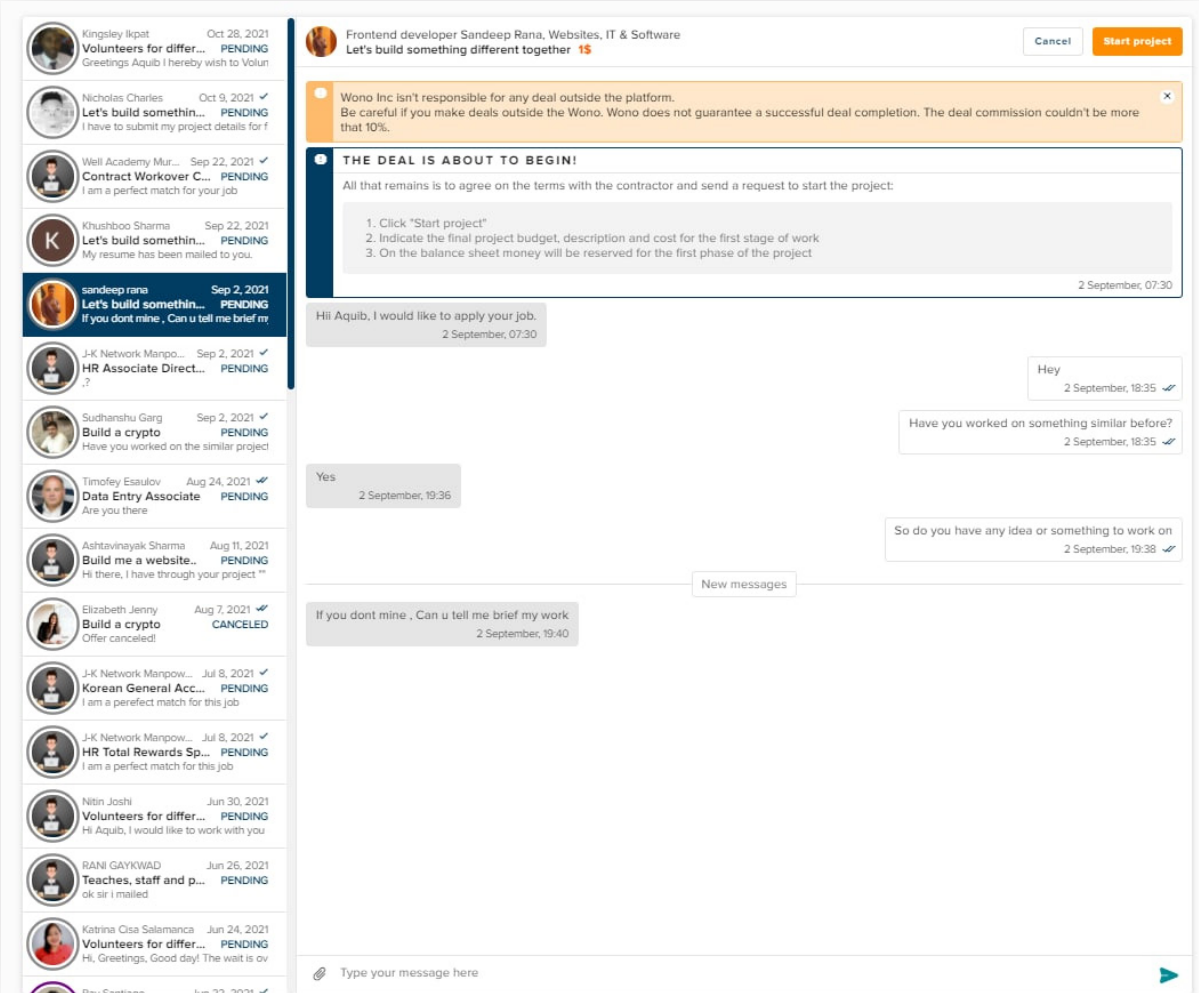

What is WONO

WONO is an international talent marketplace with more than 100,000 monthly active users from Americas, Europe, Asia and Africa. On WONO, one can find a part-time job as a freelancer, post a CV or a typical service that can be done.

WONO's freelancers offer services in software development, design, digital marketing, translation and many more.

For users convenience and safety, WONO has an in-built service for discussing job description and payment size. All the transactions are done internally: employers can seamlessly pay for jobs done and contractors can then easily withdraw.

Fees - some percentage WONO will charge in case of withdrawal.

A bit more about the token

WONO staking token follows the HRC-20 (Huobi Eco Chain, HECO) standard and can be transferred over HECO chain.

Emission of the token is going to be limited which creates conditions for its price growth.

The token can be held in all HECO-compatible wallets, like Huobi, Alpha or Math.
